I. INDIVIDUAL REPORTS (10 mins) other committee updates, interactions with students, administrator meetings, other reports. Etc.)

- a. Fatimah Mohamed Abdullahi – Highlight with ASC is meeting all the wonderful people at the Student Council. I grew through improved communication skills, learned how to speak up, and how to publicly speak louder and not to be shy. And learned how to be a team player and work as a team together.
- b. Rio Takahashi – Highlight was being able to feel grateful and gain the access to talk to so many new students and staff. Wanted to have this kind of experience even before taking on his role as Executive of Communication. Had regrets if he did enough in his role and if he was able to connect with enough people. But he will create his transition document and pass it to the next Executive of Communication.
- c. Sam Fang – Highlight was getting to know each of us in the Student Council. She faced many new challenges that came within this position. Such as having to juggle both classes and her role as the Executive of Issues and Concerns. Her regret was that she could not do more for the Tiger Union Building.
- d. Alex Akmatov – Nothing to report
- e. Nina Lopez – Highlight was how healing this position was for her in the work force. She commented on how amazing the chemistry was within all of us. She hopes that the chemistry with the next Associated Student Council will be as good as the one this year. She also commented on how much red tape was surrounding this role and having to juggle around it. Feelings of doing so much while also doing nothing at all but realizes that establishing a foundation for this council was a win within itself. She will miss us very much and cannot wait to see what we will do in the future as amazing people.

- f. Helena Luong – Highlight was how much meaning the Student Council brought into her life. She was so glad she was able to work and meet such lovely people. Another highlight was working with the Student and Activities fee was amazing. Where she gave one of if not the best Service and Activities fee presentations to the board of trustees. She hopes the next ASC and S&A can work well together. And she hopes there is more structure that will come with her position, and she knows she can entrust Dr. Kumbi to help out when needed.
- g. Kimberly Ho – Even though compared to most she only was able to work half the amount of time as everyone else. But in that time the highlight that she gained was learning so much about campus life at Seattle Central. And in joining this position she has improved her organization and management skills with both work and school. Working for the Associated Student Council has allowed her to see so much about how involved we are in this community and the work we put into it. She knows the future ASC will have a lot more tasks and challenges, but she hopes we can all work well together and balance the work/school/social life.
- h. Dongyou Chen – Highlight on how much he has learned and gained from each of us on the Student Council. He knows he was terrible at building relationships and tried to benefit and focus on himself. But by working with us he learned to become a better team player. And he wishes he put more effort when he started into his role. His advice for the next ASC is to put more effort in general, more than you think you will gain in return.
- i. Truce Montoya – Loved to work with everyone, especially Rio and Alex. Alex helped him keep getting motivated and find the reason to stay at school. He is proud of visioning success and trying his hardest at any time. The Legislative day was memorable. It is a bit scary but exciting to work with wonderful new members.
- j. Katie Wallace - Hearing all the highlights was one of her highlights. She admires how flexible and adaptable we are as people. And she learned so much from each one of us as well. She wants to highlight how well we built such amazing relationships and just how successful we were as a group more than we give ourselves credit for. Just rebuilding the foundation alone of the Student Council is a lot of work. And we all have a lot to be proud of. She believes the next Associated Student Council will be in great hands and remember to reach out to us, the previous Executives or Associates, for any advice. Wherever they are going to go in life.

J. ADJOURNMENT

Fatimah adjourned the meeting at 3:46 PM.
