C. LAND USE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT (1min)

“I acknowledge the land on which we stand today as the traditional home of the Coast Salish people, the traditional home of all tribes and bands within the Duwamish, Suquamish, Tulalip and Muckleshoot nations. Without them, we would not have access to this gathering and to this dialogue. I ask that we take this opportunity to thank the original caretakers of this land who are still here.”

E. PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD (5min)

- Blaine shared a presentation with ASC members of the words by Nuseir Yassin of Nas Daily. He believed that this is something that everybody as a student leadership can look up to, as we have always been fighting for equity. He has been contacting the humanities and sociology instructor to get some ideas. Blaine explained to the members that there is a link to Palestine solidarity events and asked everyone to click on that if they want to attend. The instructor also has the link to a petition, but Blaine will have to confirm that everybody could participate first, and then he will let everyone know.

F. OLD BUSINESS (10min)

- Alex updated ASC members on the free menstrual product program. Last Tuesday, Alex had met with Sara Djubek, CEO of Aunt Flow, to inform her that Seattle Central College could not become partners with Aunt Flow on the program. Instead, Seattle Central College will work with WCP, a local supplier that SCC already have a relationship with. Alex is still working on the calculations regarding the number of products that would be received, comparing it to Aunt Flow to figure out which option to go with.

Robert made a motion to transfer the agreement from Aunt Flow to WCP

Maryam seconded

- Dr. Sheila and Dr. Yoshiko were unable to attend the meeting. They will try to reschedule to another meeting.
- Alexis gave a presentation about the survey data that has been collected. She brought up some feedback from the students, regards to their learning experiences at Seattle Central College. By doing so, Alexis hoped to improve students' learning experiences during the pandemic and came up with ideas regarding online instructions, courses on Canvas, and other provided services.
